

Study in ENGLAND

SUMMER 2008 (JUNE 11 – JULY 2)

COMM 173: Intercultural Communication and Global Understanding

- Earn 3 units of SJSU credit
- Experience English life and traditions, from castles and cathedrals to tea rooms and pubs
- Live with a British family in the elegant Georgian city of Bath
- Immerse yourself in a World Heritage Site—its Roman ruins, Georgian architecture, and the modern lives of its people
- See Stonehenge, an original Magna Carta, the Jane Austen Museum, cathedrals, Harry Potter film sites, and numerous local attractions
- Astound yourself with the many differences between Americans and our closest cousins, the English: “two countries divided by a common language” (GB Shaw)

ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

All SJSU students who are prepared for upper division classes are eligible and welcome to participate in this program. Anyone who wishes to improve her/his personal abilities as an interculturally competent communicator will find this course of value. This course is available through Open University to all members of the SJSU community. Participants will be expected to walk a lot and ride local buses. Participants must bring adequate rain gear and be prepared for whatever summer weather England gives us.

CONTACT

For more information, please contact Dr. Dennis Jaehne:

Office: HGH 108

Phone: (408) 924-5373

Email: Dennis.Jaehne@sjsu.edu