

Study in
SOUTH AFRICA

SUMMER 2008 (MAY 26 – JUNE 12)

MCOM 180: SJSU's Multimedia Academy

- Co-instructed by San Jose Mercury News Photojournalist
- Explore Real World multimedia journalism
- Produce compelling multimedia stories in the field and on deadline
- Learn the importance of discipline with time, shooting, and gathering information necessary to advance the story
- Learn the importance of research, organization, adjusting, adapting and patience
- Earn 3 units of SJSU credit

ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

This program is open to all undergraduate and graduate students who are matriculated towards a degree at a U.S. university or college. Students who have successfully completed their advance photojournalism and or broadcast sequence courses are especially welcome to take this course.

CONTACT

For more information please contact Professor Michael Cheers:

Office: DBH 207

Email: mcheers@casa.sjsu.edu

Phone: (408) 924-3259